Mirth and Melody On Orpheum Menu

Mirth and melody will vie for honors at the new Orpheum Theatre starting Sunday, March 20, when "Dr." Robkwell, famous fun phycsician, and Joseph Diskay, celebrated Hungarian tenor, top an unusually interesting program. Robkwell is to appear in "Quack, Quack, Quack," a new edition of his hilariously funny hokum health talk. Diskay, who is extremely popular with Southern California radio fans, having sung over several noted stations, brings a group of exceptionally fine vocal numbers as his offering. Gaston and Andree, the dancing rage of London and Paris, star in their own revue, supported by Maura Shanley and Edna McKay. Ernest R. Ball, America's beloved composer, holds over in "A Night With the Gang," assisted by eight talented male singers. Jeane Joyson, the glad girl of songland, will be heard in an entirely new song routine, while Maharana and Big Rosie, the only trained white elephants in vaudeville, are another feature. "Envy," a comedy playlet by Edwin Burke, and the Merediths, unspoiled little aristocrats of danceland, close the exceptional bill.

LETTER DAY SAINTS.
Services held in the Knights of Columbus hall, located on Portola avenue, corner of Redondo boulevard.
Sunday School commences at 10 a. m.
Public invited to attend. No collection taken up.
Elder's address, 1618 Arlington.

TALKS ON TASTE

J. W. BARNES CO.

If Dresses Were Eggs

YOU COULD JUST STEP TO THE PHONE AND SAY

"Send Me up a Fresh Dress"

But who ever heard of a woman buying a dress without seeing it? And why? If she has been trading at a reputable store, she is sure of getting good quality even if she doesn't see the goods or know the price. Then why must she SEE the dress?

BECAUSE SHE WANTS IT TO PLEASE HER SENSE OF GOOD TASTE. Quality and Price are deciding factors in groceries and meats; but in matters of dress, you must satisfy her aesthetic tastes. That's why we folks at Barnes are so particular to select fabrics and modes that are in Good Taste, avoiding the bizarre, but different enough to express your personality.

BARNES DOESN'T BUY IN BULK—Taking Whatever May Be In the Lot. BARNES selects from the Latest Creations—"Hand Picks," if you please, the Cream of the Season's Mode and brings it to Torrance for your convenience.
